& Head-Neck Surgeons of Sultanate of Oman

Sur
Jan 29, 2010

The 14th Annual Scientific Meeting of Otolaryngologists & Head-Neck Surgeons and Audiologists and Speech Pathologists of Sultanate of Oman will be held at Sur on January 29, 2010. It will be preceded by one day course on Fiberoptic Endoscopic Evaluation of Swallowing (FEES) and Swallowing Disorders on January 28, 2010. The theme is based on head and neck surgery. The Scientific Programme includes many world renowned guest speakers. There are also free paper sessions for which papers are invited from all ENT doctors including residents.

There is a prize announced for one best paper each from the categories of residents and non resident ENT doctors. The best paper from the resident doctors category will be awarded a book prize. The best paper from a non resident ENT doctor will be offered a free registration to one of the Hands on courses to be held at Al Nahdha Hospital during next year.

The last date for submission of the papers is 25th December 2009. It should be submitted to the Chairman scientific committee. The time allowed for each paper will be 8 minutes with 2 minutes of discussion. Time limit will be strictly followed. Any violation of time limit will invite penalty in the form of deductions in the marks from judges.
